Art Unit: 2876

1. Claims 1-29 are rejected as being based upon a defective reissue declaration under 35 U.S.C. 251 as set forth above. See 37 CFR 1.175.

The nature of the defect(s) in the declaration is set forth in the discussion above in this Office action.

The current declaration refers to an incorrect parent application. The current declaration refers to "08/570,625". Instead, the declaration should refer to --08/570,626--.

2. This reissue application was filed without the required offer to surrender the original patent or, if the original is lost or inaccessible, an affidavit or declaration to that effect. The original patent, or an affidavit or declaration as to loss or inaccessibility of the original patent, must be received before this reissue application can be allowed. See 37 CFR 1.178.

3. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: the current specification does not supply support for the focal distances of the first and second scan patterns being different.

4. Claims 25-27,29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The different focal distances for the first and second scan pattern has not been found specifically within the specification or prior parent applications. If applicant can point out specifically where in the current specification, this element can be found, the examiner will reconsider.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(g)(1) during the course of an interference conducted under section 135 or section 291, another inventor involved therein establishes, to the extent permitted in section 104, that before such person's invention thereof the invention was made by such other inventor and not abandoned, suppressed, or concealed, or (2) before such person's invention thereof, the invention was made in this country by another inventor who had not abandoned, suppressed, or concealed it. In determining priority of invention under this subsection, there shall be considered not only the respective dates of conception and reduction to practice of the invention, but also the reasonable diligence of one who was first to conceive and last to reduce to practice, from a time prior to conception by the other.

6. Claims 20,21,22,23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(g) as being clearly anticipated by claims 1,23,34,37, respectively, of Katoh et al 5,693,930.

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 24 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nickl 4,652,732. Nickl discloses as seen in figures 4,5,6, for example, a scanning means within a housing the housing having two separate regions on its surface through which scanning beams emerge from the housing. In one region, a single orientation scan pattern emerges from the housing. In the second region, a multidirectional scan pattern emerges from the housing. Nickl does not disclose that the multidirectional scan pattern has intersecting scan lines. However, multidirectional scan patterns with intersecting lines ("asterisk" or "star") patterns are old and well known. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to replace the multi direction scan pattern of Nickl with a well known "asterisk" pattern. This "asterisk" pattern is more compact and thus would provide for a more compact overall system.

9. Claims 1-19 remain allowed for the same reasons as set forth in the parent applications.

10. Note: if applicant can point out where in the application support for the new matter, as alleged by the examiner, can be found. Claims 25-27 and 29 would be allowable as the prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest to one of ordinary skill in the art, along with all the other limitations of those claims, the different focal distances for the first and second scan patterns.

11. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Karl Frech whose telephone number is (703) 305-3491. The examiner's supervisor is Michael Lee whose telephone number is (703)305-3503. Any inquiry of a general

Communications via Internet e-mail regarding this application, other than those under 35 U.S.C. 132 or which otherwise require a signature, may be used by the applicant and should be addressed to [karl.frech@uspto.gov]. All Internet e-mail communications will be made of record in the application file. PTO employees do not engage in Internet communications where there exists a possibility that sensitive information could be identified or exchanged unless the record includes a properly signed express waiver of the confidentiality requirements of 35 U.S.C. 122. This is more clearly set forth in the Interim Internet Usage Policy published in the Official Gazette of the Patent and Trademark on February 25, 1997 at 1195 OG 89.
